Good Morning Dave,

Just a short note following up on these items. During our conversation on 10/29, a central theme or question seemed to be the role that you had in mind for OERA in these two projects. For clarity, my direction from WU PMs is that I am to provide a second (Deschutes) or fourth (Klamath) pair of eyes as part of the review process as compared to serving as the technical lead responsible for the scientific merit of TMDL deliverables. All is fine with that approach of course, but thought it appropriate to clarify in the event you wanted to follow-up.

Thanks and hope you had a great Thanksgiving! (sorry about the Michigan loss to Ohio State ☹️).

Chris
